Note: Objective/ Completion type questions. All questions are compulsory. (6x1=6)

Read the following passage:

1 Football is a popular sport in India, Football has enjoyed popularity in Kerala, West Bengal, Goa and north-eastern India which consists of Assam, Manipur, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Nagaland, Tripura, Arunachal Pradesh and Sikkim. India's current top domestic league I-league, was formed in 2007 in an attempt to professionalize domestic football. In 2013 the Indian super league was formed as an unrecognised professional league with 8 teams to promote Indian football to the country and world. After three seasons, the Indian super league was recognised as a top tier league, running in a parallel with the I-league, thus leaving India as one of the few countries with two fully recognised top tier leagues. Also contested is Santosh Trophy, a knock-out competition between states (Provinces) and government institutions. The current captain of the Indian national team is Sunil chhetri. India is
